INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

- Stock-picking based on fundamental analysis (Private Equity approach)
- Focused approach on longstanding knowledge of leading high-quality companies (a reduced selection of approx. 700 companies), undervalued by the market (growth either underestimated or restructuring of a company having undergone a fall in earnings), in order to minimize risk
- Seeking returns over a 3 to 5 year horizon: unconstrained and benchmark agnostic approach
- Build a high-conviction but diversified portfolio (30 to 50 holdings)

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTARY

Dear Investors,

For the month of September, your World Winners fund is down -2.7% versus -2.4% for the MSCI World.

We believe there are three main reasons for the drop in equity markets: the negative impact of the rise in energy prices and supply chain disruptions, the fear of a less accommodating monetary policy from the FED and the negative implications the potential bankruptcy of Evergrande (second largest property developer in China) could have on the Chinese economy.

The companies exposed to basic materials like Suzano (-14.5% in September), one of the largest producers of cardboard in the world, have seen their share prices drop. This came without any specific news for the company but nevertheless had a negative impact on the fund's performance.

China was not the only part of the world to get hit, US and European equity markets dropped too in September due to fears regarding potential interest rate hikes that hurt growth stocks.

On a positive note, Magnit rose +13.1% in the month, with the Russian market being a beneficiary of the rise in energy prices. Magnit is the leader in Russian food distribution and a consolidator of a largely fragmented market (the market share of the top 5 players is around 35% in Russia versus 50%-75% for developed countries). Magnit started a turnaround plan in 2020, leading to better sales density and higher returns on invested capital. Thanks to its more efficient cost structure, the company has high chances of successfully executing its market consolidation strategy in the years to come.

We thank you for your trust.
